

International Student Orientation
(Mandatory for New International Students)

August 15, 2013 (Thursday): 7:45 a.m.- 4:30p.m.
Campbell Auditorium of the Cox Communications Bldg.

August 16, 2013 (Friday): International Student Orientation Day 2

ECE Graduate Orientation
(New Graduate Students Must Attend)

August 19, 2013 (Monday): (10:30 a.m.–12.00 p.m.)
2301 Patrick F. Taylor Hall.

Followed by pizza lunch at 12:00 p.m.

During orientation, new students will be introduced to our Graduate Program. We will discuss academics, course advising, areas of study, teaching and research assistantships, and much more. You will be able to meet some of our faculty and graduate students.

Assistantships/Financial Assistance

Teaching assistantships in ECE have already been assigned for the semester. Research Assistantships in ECE are awarded by individual faculty members. If you are interested in research, you should contact the faculty member directly. Our faculty list and research information are on our webpage: www.ece.lsu.edu. Often graduate students find campus jobs in other departments after they arrive for their computer and tutoring skills. You can respond to on campus advertised student job opening but unsolicited mailing of requests for jobs is strongly discouraged.
